

eNurture Funding: A showcase of research projects supported by eNurture
Monday 17th January 2pm to 4.40pm

TIME	PROGRAMME
14:00	Welcome and Introduction - Prof Susan McVie (University of Edinburgh)
	SESSION 1 - Chair: Prof Gordon Harold (University of Cambridge) 14:05 Eiman Kanjo (Nottingham Trent University) Prototyping TangToys (Tangible Toys to Improve Mental Health): Explorative work for designing digital technology for and with Children with Intellectual Disability 14:20 Simon Hammond (University of East Anglia) Exploring understandings of digital resilience to inform the development of a Digital Resilience Scale (DRS) for 'pre-teens' (9-12 year olds) 14:35 Aiman El Asam (Kingston University London) Vulnerability, Online Lives and Mental Health: Towards a New Practice Model 14:50 Autumn Roesch-Marsh (University of Edinburgh) Care leaver relationships, mental health and online spaces
15:05	BREAK
	SESSION 2 - Chair: Prof Susan McVie 15:15 Michelle O'Reilly (University of Leicester) Empowering pre-teens online through a digital ethics of care framework 15:30 Angeliki Bogosian (City University London) Delphi study with young people, families and professionals to prioritise focus, content and digital tools in the co-development of digital tools to support young people with long-term health conditions 15:45 Laura Cariola (University of Edinburgh) Third Culture Kids' Digital Environments and Mental Health 16:00 Bina Bhardwa (Birkbeck University) and Fiona Lacey (YoungMinds) The negotiation of pleasure, risk and harm in young people's digital lives: A scoping project on the mental health and wellbeing implications of online 'transgressive' behaviours 16:15 Rose Capdevila and Lisa Lazard (The Open University) Supporting children's mental health through familial online relationships
16:30	Launch of 3rd Funding call – Prof Gordon Harold, Director of eNurture Presentation & Q&A
16:40	CLOSE
16.40 - 17.00	Time for additional questions on the funding call for attendees able to stay on